Youth in Government

Introduction Guidelines

Content for Introductions

Here are some key questions to respond to for introductions as a youth in government participant:

- Name.
- Grade.
- Year in Youth in Government.
 - If this is your first year of Youth in Government, what inspired you and/or interests you in joining the program?
 - If you have previously been part of the Youth in Government program, what did you enjoy, which committee were you on, and who was your mentor?
- One unique thing about yourself.
- What you are looking forward to for this year's youth in government program.

Speaking Guidelines

- Be sure to speak clearly and confidently.
- When joining virtually, be sure you are not muted before speaking.

We are excited to have you in this year's program!
