

Green County Leaders 2020-2021: A Year of Adaptability

Leadership in Supporting Community

Wednesday, September 9, 2020

Time: 12:00pm -- 1:30pm

Zoom Registration Information

These meetings will be held over Zoom. Registration will be required ahead of time. Click here to register if you have not yet registered. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

Focus

- Explore circles of influence and what that means when it comes to leading and serving.
- Learn how individuals can help support individuals, organizations, and businesses during this difficult time.

Information for Participants & Participant Expectations

- This will be an engaging, civil session.
- This session will be recorded and posted on www.greencountyleaders.com a week after the session takes place.

Prepare Ahead (Estimated 10-15 Minutes)

- Prepare for the session on Circle of Influence
 - Watch this 6 minute video on Steven Covey sharing about "Circle of Influence -- Circle of Concern." Note -- we do realize the video is a bit dated. We are sharing this because he effectively presents the core ideas in a very succinct manner.
 - Take just a couple minutes, reflect, and jot down some notes. Choose any of the questions below to reflect on:
 - Identify some things directly within your Circle of Influence.
 - Looking at what you identified within your Circle of Influence, which of these contributes to strengthen or building meaningful relationships in your personal and professional networks?
 - Identify an opportunity or initiative that you are hopeful about as a leader. What are things within your Circle of Influence that contribute to your hope being realized?
- Identify a quick resource that you have found useful and/or have heard has been useful -- for example, a park, trail, website, app, etc. Examples: Libby app for downloading library books; Calm app for meditation; bike trail map to bike in Green county.

Purpose of Green County Leaders

Green County Leaders (GCL) is an educational program where individuals practice leadership skills, deepen their understanding of community issues, and prepare for leadership roles. This creates a network of active and visionary individuals who leverage their experience and expertise to benefit their community and local community-based organizations.

Green County Leaders provides equal opportunity in education and programming.
