Dairy Modernization Tours

Written by: Jackie McCarville, Regional Extension Dairy Educator

UW-Extension will be sponsoring Dairy Facility Farm Tours on Monday, October 30th, 2023. The tours will include seven dairy farms located in Green and Lafayette Counties that have all made modernization improvements to their dairy facilities to increase productivity and animal comfort as well as reducing labor.

The tours are popular with dairy farmers as they feature an open house format in which dairy producers can visit any number of the seven farms they wish between 10:30 am and 3 pm. There is no central meeting place or any formal presentation for the tours. Farmers can simply select which farms they would like to visit on their own time schedule between 10:30 am - 3 pm on October 30th. A farm representative will be on hand at each farm to answer questions for the tour participants.

The tours will feature various sizes of dairy farms with herds ranging from 120-1800 cows. For producers interested in upgrading their milking facilities, the tours will include robotic milking systems, swing parlors, parallel parlors, and other milking setups.

This year's tours will showcase the following farms:

- ◆ Johnson Dairy Inc — Albany, WI
- ◆ Troy Pauli — New Glarus, WI
- ◆ Truttmann Dairy — New Glarus, WI
- ◆ Farron & Jessica Gruenenfelder — Blanchardville, WI
- ◆ Wiegel Riverside Farms — South Wayne, WI
- ◆ Cottonwood Dairy — South Wayne, WI
- ◆ Endless Horizons, Inc — Cuba City, WI

Dairy Innovation Hub Dairy Summit, UW-Platteville

Formatted for a general audience, the Summit features the Hub's newest projects. Hub events are free and open to the public. Pre-registration is required. In addition to research presentations, there will be two panel sessions to stimulate ideas and discussion:

Two UW-Platteville faculty will be joined by two local farmers who will share their experience hosting research trials on their farms. A panel of state leaders will reflect on four years of the Dairy Innovation Hub and the state's investment in research to grow Wisconsin dairy. Afterwards tours will be available showcasing the campus or Pioneer Farm.

Register and view the complete schedule, including a listing of all speakers, at dairyinnovationhub.wisc.edu/dairy-summit
